MESA CONTRACTOR LEAVES SUDDENLY

WHEREABOUTS OF A WEEMS A MATTER OF SPECULATION.

No Known Reason for His Mysterious Disappearance.

A. Weems, of the contracting firm of Weems & Notley, has suddenly disappeared from the town and his whereabouts seems to be a matter of considerable speculation, with no definite knowledge as to his reasons for leaving.

Mr. Weems has been recognized as a first-class carpenter and the firm has been doing a splendid business since its organization in the spring.
No less than three or four houses are in course of construction and it appears that the firm has been making money. Mr. Weems had no good reasons, as far as is now known, for leaving the town. It appears that he met all his obligations in a business-like manner.

Mr. Weems came here along in the spring accompanied by his wife. They erected a temporary house on East First avenue east of the Mrs. Sprague residence, which Mrs. Weems continues to occupy. It is understood that the family came here from Albuquerque.

Mr. Notley, the junior member of the firm, will fulfill the contracts entered upon and it is not anticipated that any serious complications will arise as a result of the sudden disappearance of Mr. Weems.

MRS. RUSE ENTERTAINED.

MARRIED THREE COUPLES IN JUST THREE HOURS

Justice Parker Shatters His Matrimonial Record.

Judge Parker's matrimonial record for the year was broken Wednesday, when he married three couples between 1 and 4 o'clock.

The first couple appeared shortly after midday. They were Manuel Li-mon and Dolores Rubio. They are both residents of Phoenix. At 2 o'clock the second pair appeared. They were Howard E. Munn and Mrs. Marie Beno of Toledo, Ohio. They came here from San Francisco and expected to return to their former home in Ohio.
They have been friends for years.
Judge Parker married them in an interlude in the Roberts case, when one of the attorneys asked for a ten minutes' recess. They were married at the office of the clerk of the probate court.

The third couple were John Brown and Miss Julia Brady of Mesa. Incidentally this is the third couple from Mesa that the judge has united this week.

MESA MORE LITIGATION RESULTS FROM FIRE

Another Suit Is Filed Against Peters & Company.

Since the suit filed by Ernest Cris-mon against the A. J. Peters Co. seeking to recover damages on account of the West Main street fire last June, Loran Dana, who occupied the adjoining building to that in which the hay was stored by the Peters company, with a livery stable business, has also instituted a suit for $1500. It is understood that since the filing of the first suit a considerable amount of new and important evidence has been unearthed which warrants the commencement of the second suit. Attorneys Armstrong and Howard of Phoenix and Dougherty and Pomeroy of this place will appear for the plaintiffs in both cases.

HOLLADAY DRUG STORE HAS CHANGED HANDS.

M. P. Holladay has disposed of his half interest in the Holladay Drug company to Frank Cliff, his partner.
Last spring Mr. Cliff came to Mesa from the Gila valley and purchased a half interest in the store. Later Mr.
Holladay purchased the A. W. Babbitt & Son's business, which consisted of confectionery and soda water trade.
Since that time Mr. Holladay has been devoting his time to that business.

Mr. Cliff is a practical druggist and he will retain William Marlar, who has been with the firm some time as pharmacist.

CHAUTAUQUA AT PHOENIX.

The Chautauqua which opens at Phoenix September 2 gives promise of being well attended by Mesa residents, provided they can get accommodations from the railway company so that they may be able to return after the evening lectures. The address of William Jennings Bryan will, of course, be the strongest attraction and on that day it is probable that Mesa will turn out en masse.

CAMPING PARTY BACK FROM WHITE MOUNTAINS

Had a Good Time and Found Fish in Abundance.

The Jones-Robson party returned Wednesday evening from the White mountains, where they have been spending the summer. The members of the party say they had a fine time, with the usual disagreeable features of rain, broken wagons, etc. Those things, however, are incidents of every camping trip that are anticipated and prepared for.

The party got in most of the summer in the White mountains and say that the climate there was fine; just cool enough to be comfortable. Fishing was excellent and it was an easy matter to catch a mess of trout at any time. A good many were cured there and brought home for future consumption. Going up, the trip was made by way of Globe, but coming back an old route was taken by way of Shovel and Pinehole. The road was anything but good and that portion of the trip was rather trying.

A NEW MILLINER.

Will Be With Geach & Geach the Coming Season.

Mrs. Lillian Dutton of Los Angeles arrived here yesterday. She is an experienced trimmer and has been in the millinery business for a number of years in Los Angeles. She has accepted a position with Geach & Geach and will be with that firm the coming season. Though the season will not properly open until a little later in the month, the time between now and then will be spent in preparation. Mr.
Geach predicts a surprise for the Tempe public with the opening and is making preparations for a good business.

BACK FROM THE EAST.

F. S. Baldwin Interested a Number of People in Arizona.

After spending a month in the east F. S. Baldwin returned yesterday afternoon. He made the trip partially for pleasure and partially on business, and all the time he was away he boosted Arizona. He was successful in interesting a number of people in this section of the valley. While away he visited Chicago and many other points in that section and also paid a visit to his old home, Youngstown, Ohio.

THE SHOW.

Jack Turner's show at the Goodwin opera house Wednesday evening could have been better, but as it was it furnished amusement for a well filled house. Owing to temporary defects in the picture machine the pictures were not as good as usual, and one of the company being sick, the performance was somewhat curtailed. Mr. Turner states, however, that these faults will all be remedied and that next Wednesday evening he will present something better. The skating act of Steele and Mc Masters Wednesday evening was the feature of the performance and was exceptionally fine.

HE PAID FOR FLOUR IN FALSE SECURITIES

Requisition Papers in the Case of Jeff Ford, Now Under Arrest at Tombstone, Are Signed by the Governor.

A requisition was granted yesterday by Governor Sloan to Charles Campbell of Guthrie, Okla., for the custody of Jeff Ford, who is under arrest at Tombstone.

Ford is charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses. He represented to a milling company in Guthrie that he had certain securities, and lent and these he gave the company as security for a large amount of flour purchased from them and not paid for.
It was later discovered that the securities were valueless, and efforts will be made to prove the intent to defraud.
Campbell left at once for Tombstone, where he will get his prisoner and return with him to Oklahoma.
